Litigation

Nicholas S. S. Rogers is a litigation associate with Quattlebaum, Grooms & Tull PLLC. Before joining the firm in 2023, he served two years as a law clerk to the Honorable Kristine G. Baker of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Arkansas. Mr. Rogers' experience includes work on constitutional questions, labor disputes, and federal regulations.

Mr. Rogers earned his Juris Doctor and Master of Public Policy degrees from the University of Virginia, where he served on the editorial board of the Virginia Journal of Criminal Law. Prior to law school, Mr. Rogers served as a Vice President for Media Analysis at a Washington, D.C., research consulting firm, after working for former United States Senator Mark Pryor.

A native of Conway, Arkansas, Mr. Rogers graduated summa cum laude with a bachelor's degree in Spanish and International Studies from the Honors College at the University of Central Arkansas in 2012. While at UCA, Mr. Rogers was a seven-time Presidential Scholar, a member of the Alpha Chi National Honors Scholarship Society, and was named Outstanding Student in International Studies in 2011.

Outside of the office, Mr. Rogers competes as an elite amateur road cyclist, studies foreign languages, and is preparing for the Court of Master Sommelier's introductory sommelier exam.
